- Prizes for catch categories divided by ages
- Award ceremony
- Lunch provided for each paid participant

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO:

- check in pre-registered children
- be judges
- record weights and take measurements
- untangle fishing lines and monitor shore lines
- help set up for Continental breakfast
- help out with lunch preparation
- grillers for cooking lunch
- clean-up

WHAT YOU NEED TO BRING:

- Fishing pole
- Bait
- Smile
- Positive attitude

We will have worms available this year to purchase (or someone may donate them) at the lake so that you don't have to run around to get them. One less excuse for not coming!

FISHING DERBY RULES: Six Simple rules for everyone to enjoy a great day of fishing and family fun!

1. Children and Young Adults up to age 18 may participate;
2. All contestants are asked to catch and release fish caught during the derby;
3. Fish must be 12" or over to be weighed in by the judges for the Big Fish Contest;
4. Biggest Fish by weight is the overall winner of the derby;
5. Contestant may fish only one pole at a time: one pole per person in the water at any given time;
6. Fish are to be caught in West Lake only.

This is a great day for our youth to gain appreciation for our lakes and boost their awareness of the need for future preservation. Let's make it fun and enjoyable. Everyone who participates is already winner!
